THE BATTLEFACE INTERNATIONAL TRAVEL INSURANCE POLICY

Travel is one of the greatest gifts you can give yourself. And like all amazing gifts, you want to be sure it's a great experience. That it enriches you and your needs.

Because you've got more interesting things to think about while you're off exploring the world, you want the peace of mind knowing your insurance will be there if you need it.

This document contains important information to help you decide if the cover we offer is right for you. It's divided into two parts:

- Product Disclosure Statement (PDS); and
- Financial Services Guide (FSG).

Product Disclosure Statement (PDS)

The PDS contains everything you need to know about this policy. This includes contact details and comprehensive information about policy benefits, conditions, and exclusions.

This policy is a consumer insurance contract under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984.

The PDS will help you understand:

- what's covered;
- what's not covered;
- policy benefits;
- how we protect your privacy; and
- what happens if you need to make a claim.

Any advice given in this document is general in nature and hasn't taken into account your personal circumstances. As we don't know your objectives, financial and non-financial situation or your needs, it is important you carefully consider whether this insurance product is right for you.

If you buy this insurance, your policy is made up of this PDS and your Certificate of Insurance. Please also consider the FSG and Target Market Determination (TMD). Your Certificate of Insurance contains your personal insurance details, so check to make sure everything is correct. Contact us immediately if any details or information is incorrect.

The information in this PDS is current as of 9 September 2025. If we make any changes, we'll let you know.

You can find the latest info here. Or contact us and we'll send it to you.

Our agreement with you

Your policy is a contract between you and us, and your agreement with us is set out in:

- this document;
- your application for insurance;
- your Certificate of Insurance; and
- any other documents we issue outlining terms and conditions of your cover.

Together, these documents make up your policy and should be read carefully.

The insurer

This insurance is underwritten by Pacific International Insurance Pty Ltd ABN 83 169 311 193, AFSL No 523921 (the insurer).

For information on how we work together and the services we provide, please refer to the Financial Services Guide.

Who are we?

battleface Insurance Services Pty Ltd, ABN 28 650 606 045, AFSL 536280 (battleface) acts as the underwriting agent of the insurer under a binding authority from them, which means we can issue, vary, or cancel insurance on their behalf and handle and settle any claims you make. battleface is authorised to provide these services under our AFSL.

Cooling off period and Cancellations

Cancelling within the cooling off period

You've got 21 days (known as the 'cooling off period') from the day you buy your policy to cancel and get a full refund. This gives you time to read the PDS and check the policy is right for you.

Cancelling outside the cooling off period

If you request to cancel your policy outside the cooling-off period, we'll refund that part of your premium paid for the unused period of insurance based on a pro-rata calculation.

In both cases, we will only consider a refund if:

- you haven't started your trip; and
- you haven't made a claim; and
- you don't intend to make a claim.

When a policy cancellation has been accepted, we will process your refund within 15 Business Days.

Other important info about this policy

- You must be 18 years of age or older to buy the policy.
- There's an upper age limit of 99 years.
- You can buy this policy up to 12 months before your date of departure.
- The policy covers one way and return journeys.
- It's only available for Australian residents that meet at least one of the following criteria:
 - You hold a valid Australian Medicare card, or
 - You are an Australian citizen, permanent resident, or New Zealand passport holder with unrestricted entry rights and access to long-term medical care in Australia.
- Cancellation cover (if selected) begins from the time you purchase your policy.
- On-trip cover is limited to the dates of travel and destination(s) shown on your Certificate of Insurance. If you've already left home and buy this policy while travelling, a 48 hour no-cover period applies from the time of purchase.
For example: If you take out a policy on Monday at 9am, cover will commence on Wednesday at 9am. This means you won't be covered for any events that happen between 9am on Monday and 9am on Wednesday, even if treatment or expenses related to those events occur after cover starts.
- The policy automatically extends if your return is delayed by an event covered under the policy, until you are able to return to Australia by the quickest route.

The premium payable for this policy

The amount we charge is the total amount of the premium and any relevant government charges (such as stamp duty). Several factors are considered in determining the amount payable. These include:

- Advance Purchase – the further in advance that you purchase the policy, the higher the premium may be.
- Age – the older you are, the higher the premium is likely to be.
- Duration – the longer you travel, the higher the premium is likely to be.
- Destination – destinations where medical costs are typically higher will generally require higher premiums.
- Excess – the higher the excess you choose, the lower the premium you will pay.
- Optional Covers - you can choose additional cover, for example, a Cruise pack. The more covers that you choose, the higher the premium will be.
- Variable Limits – you have flexibility to choose your required level of benefit on some covers. The higher the benefit that you choose, the higher the premium is likely to be.
- Adding cover for Existing Medical Conditions – any additional premium will be advised to you after you complete a medical assessment and we accept the risk. Cover for that condition will only apply once any applicable additional premium has been paid.

Tax implications - Goods and Services Tax (GST)

International travel insurance is exempt from GST. This includes cancellation cover and any domestic flights connecting you with your international flights.

Optional covers

Nobody likes paying for things they don't need, so our approach gives you flexibility to select the range of covers that you may need, and in some cases, the level of benefit that you require.

The choice is yours.

Significant risks

This policy may not be right for you

This policy may not be right for you, so it's important you read and understand this document. If you're unsure about anything, please contact us.

Do you have the right level of cover?

You need to make sure the limits of cover are right for your needs. If you make a claim, and your losses are higher than the cover provided, you will have to cover the losses over the policy limit.

Please refer to the maximum and applicable sub-limits set out in the Schedule of Benefits.

A claim may be denied

We may refuse to pay, or reduce the amount we pay for a claim if you:

- don't comply with the eligibility or policy conditions relevant to that claim;
- don't comply with your duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation; or
- make a fraudulent claim.

General Conditions

These general conditions apply to all covers.

To be covered under this insurance, you must be fit to travel and able to undertake your planned trip.

You must:

- Let us know as soon as possible following an event you may want to claim under this policy.
- Take all reasonable steps to prevent or reduce loss, damage, or liability arising between the commencement of cover and the completion of your trip. Failure to take reasonable steps to mitigate or avoid loss may affect your entitlement to claim under this policy.

- Give us documents, medical certificates, original receipts or information we reasonably request.
- Not make any promise, offer of payment, admit guilt or fault to anyone (except as required by law), or initiate any litigation regarding an event that may result in a claim under this policy, without our consent, which will not be unreasonably withheld.
- Provide evidence from the treating medical practitioner for a claim for illness or injury, as soon as reasonably possible.
- Exercise reasonable caution and care for the supervision and safety of both you and your property to minimise any claim.
- Avoid unnecessary exposure to dangerous situations, unless attempting to save human life.

We may, at our expense, take fair and reasonable action in your name to recover amounts that we have paid in relation to your claim.

If we pay any expenses on your behalf, or reimburse you for any loss, and you later receive payment from any other source for these expenses, you must pay us up to the claim amount we paid you.

If we pay you for stolen or damaged property, and you later recover the property or it's replaced by a third party, you must pay us the claim amount we paid you.

Claims will be paid to you or your personal representative in Australian dollars (AUD) based on the exchange rate at the time of the loss. We'll not pay more than your actual loss.

Medical health and pregnancy

Change of health before departure

If you have a change in health after you've taken out this insurance, but before your trip begins, please talk to your medical practitioner to make sure you're still fit to travel. Unless your medical practitioner can confirm you're fit to travel, you won't be covered for any claim for the condition if you still travel.

Pre-existing medical conditions

Please consider your medical history carefully before purchasing.

This policy provides cover for unexpected, sudden illnesses or serious injuries that arise after the policy has been issued.

It does not automatically cover pre-existing medical conditions, as defined below. This includes any claim where a pre-existing condition is a contributing factor.

What is a pre-existing medical condition?

A pre-existing medical condition includes any diagnosed or preliminary diagnosed medical or dental condition where:

- You have been prescribed new medication, or your dosages have been increased in the last 12 months (doesn't apply to common colds, flu or contraceptive medication); or
- You have been prescribed any medications by a medical specialist (not a GP) in the last 12 months; or
- The signs and/or symptoms are apparent to you and are being investigated or treated by a medical practitioner (including any allied health practitioner); or
- You have been admitted to a hospital overnight in the last 12 months; or
- You are on a surgical waitlist

This definition applies to you, your travelling party, a close relative, or any other person named on your Certificate of Insurance.

If someone covered under your policy has a condition that meets our definition of a pre-existing medical condition, they may still be eligible for cover by completing our online medical screening before purchase. If accepted, cover may be subject to specific terms or an additional fee or premium, and this will be noted on your Certificate of Insurance

Timeframes referenced in the definition relate to the date the policy is issued.

If you're unsure whether a condition is considered pre-existing, we recommend completing the screening before purchase to ensure confidence and clarity around your cover.

Pregnancy

Our policy offers limited cover for pregnancy.

Please read this section carefully if you're pregnant or planning to get pregnant, as there are important limitations.

Cover available if you're pregnant

We'll pay for unexpected serious complications of pregnancy and childbirth occurring:

- up to the 24th week of pregnancy if you're pregnant with a single child; or
- up to the 19th week of pregnancy if you're pregnant with twins or multiple children.

Cover is subject to the exclusions described below and all other applicable terms and conditions, exclusions and limitations of the policy.

Exclusions relating to claims from pregnancy

We won't pay any claim or loss directly or indirectly related to, or for:

- childbirth at any stage of pregnancy. If you deliver overseas, there's no cover for costs related to the birth.
- the health or care of a newborn child, whatever the claim. If you deliver overseas for any reason, including premature birth, there's no cover for costs relating to caring for the child or children.
- your pregnancy or the pregnancy of another person after the:
 - 24th week of pregnancy with a single child; or
 - 19th week of pregnancy with twins or multiple children.
- your pregnancy or the pregnancy of another person where:
 - conception was medically assisted (including hormone therapy and IVF);
 - there's been complications* with this pregnancy, or your health, prior to the start of your trip and you've been told it may adversely affect this pregnancy; or
 - you've had complications* with any previous pregnancy.
- antenatal care.

*Complications mean any secondary diagnosis occurring before, during, at the same time as, or as a result of the pregnancy, which may adversely affect the pregnancy outcome.

What's covered

We'll pay up to the amount shown in the Schedule Of Benefits for the following:

- Non-refundable travel, ancillary expenses, and accommodation that you are unable to use because you can't begin or complete the planned trip. This benefit does not apply where we have paid for additional travel and accommodation under the Emergency Medical and Additional Expenses section.
- Additional travel costs to enable you to continue your pre-paid itinerary or return home, these costs may be on another airline or mode of transport (e.g - train or ferry).
- Reasonable accommodation costs up to $2,000 for one person if your travel companion is hospitalised. This benefit ends when your travel companion is either medically cleared to continue their trip or returns home, whichever happens first.
- The travel agent's commission. This is limited to the lesser of $1,500 or the amount of commission the agent earned on the pre-paid refundable amount of the cancelled travel arrangements.
- Rearrangement costs up to the value of cancellation fees if you decide to reschedule your trip.
- Additional costs incurred during your trip as a result of a change in the per person occupancy rate for prepaid, non-refundable travel arrangements if a person booked to share accommodations with you has their trip cancelled, or interrupted due to any covered event, and you do not cancel.
- Rearrangement costs up to $500 per insured person following a public warning of a natural disaster expected to impact your outbound journey from Australia (no excess applies in this scenario).
- Additional transport costs up to a maximum of $2,500 to resume your original trip, where you have returned to Australia due to the hospitalisation or death of a close relative as a direct result of sudden serious illness or serious injury. For cover to apply there must be more than five days of the trip, or 25 percent of its length (whichever is the greater) remaining when you return to Australia. We'll not pay more than the cancellation costs you would've incurred on those pre-paid arrangements if you'd not resumed your journey.
- Additional accommodation expenses up to $200 per insured person for a maximum of 14 days if you are directed into a period of mandatory quarantine by a local public health authority whilst on your trip.
- The value of frequent flyer or similar flight reward points, air miles, redeemable vouchers or similar schemes lost by you following cancellation of the services paid for with those points, if you cannot recover your loss in any other way. We will reimburse you as follows:
 - i. For frequent flyer or similar flight reward points, loyalty card points, air miles: - The cost of an equivalent booking, based on the same advance booking period as your original redemption booking. For example:

Equivalent booking value = $2,000

Points lost = 10,000

Points redeemed for original ticket = 100,000

Claimable amount = $2,000 x (10,000 / 100,000) = $200
 - ii. For vouchers, the face value of the voucher up to the current market value of an equivalent booking.

Luggage and personal effects

This cover only applies if it is shown as selected on the Certificate of Insurance

When cover starts

Cover applies under this section if your luggage or personal effects are damaged, stolen or accidentally lost during your trip.

What's covered

We'll pay up to the amount shown in the Schedule of Benefits for the following:

- For stolen or lost items, we'll calculate your benefit based on the depreciation table below.
- For damaged items, we'll pay you to repair damage where practical and economical to do so.

- In the event of loss to a pair or set of items, we'll pay the lesser of:
 - The cost to repair or buy the individual item(s) needed to complete the set or pair; or
 - The original purchase price of the set or pair (subject to the depreciation table below).
- An overall maximum limit of $2,000 applies to a single item, pair or set.
- Up to $500 for expenses incurred overseas where it's legal and necessary to replace prescription medication damaged, stolen or accidentally lost during your trip.

- Losses from unauthorised use of your credit cards, if lost or stolen during the covered trip and you've met the terms of the issuing credit card company.

Depreciation Approach and Table

When an item is lost, damaged or stolen, we calculate depreciation based on how old it is at the time of the loss. This depreciation is applied monthly, up to a maximum of 80% of the item's original price.

Here's how it works:

Example: Loss of an Electronic Item

- Purchase Date: 1st March 2023
- Date of Loss: 3rd March 2025
- Purchase Price: $1,000
 1. Depreciation Calculation:
 - Depreciation rate is 1.5% per month.
 - As the item is 2 years old, we apply $1.5\% \times 24 \text{ months} = 36\%$ depreciation.
 2. Depreciated Value:
 - $36\% \text{ of } $1,000 = \360 (amount depreciated).
 - Item value after depreciation: $$1,000 - $360 = $640$.
 3. Claimable Amount After Excess (where relevant):
 - After applying a $100 excess, the final reimbursement is $$640 - $100 = $540$.

So, the amount we will pay for this item is $540.

Item Category	Applicable monthly depreciation
Communication, Electronic devices, Photographic equipment (including computers, electrical devices, electronics equipment, phones, smart watches and tablet computers)	1.5%
Clothing (including prescription glasses and sunglasses)	1.5%
Toiletries (including personal care items, including cosmetics, moisturisers, skincare, makeup, perfumes, fragrances, dental care, and haircare products)	3%
Jewellery (excluding costume jewellery and watches)	0%
All other items	1.5%

Delayed baggage allowance

If your carrier confirms your luggage is delayed or misplaced for a period of more than 12 hours, we will reimburse up to $300 per insured person for essential items that you need to purchase. This benefit doesn't apply for your return journey home. No excess applies to claims under this benefit.

We'll also cover the costs of shipping your lost luggage and personal effects to you if recovered.

We'll not pay any claim for:

- Sporting equipment while in use.
- Fragile or brittle items (e.g. Glass or fine china), except loss or damage caused by fire or accident to the transport carrying them.
- Damage to the screens of personal computers, smartphones or tablets, except where the damage is caused by an accident involving a vehicle or carrier in which you are travelling.

Special conditions relating to cover

All cases of loss, theft or delay must be reported to an appropriate authority as soon as possible. You'll need to submit a copy of the report as part of your claim.

If you can't give us a copy of the report, you'll need a reasonable explanation, and details of, when and where you made the report, including their contact details.

It's your responsibility to provide acceptable proof of ownership for a claim. We'll need proof that you owned the item and details about its value and age. This helps us process your claim quickly, so it's a good idea to hang onto things like receipts, invoices, or bank statements showing what you purchased, when, and how much you paid.

We can accept original documents or copies, and we might also consider valuation certificates, ATM receipts, or warranty cards if they're backed up by a bank statement. However, we generally won't accept photographs, packaging, or instruction manuals as proof of ownership.

If you cannot provide the specific documents we ask for, you should give us any other evidence you have. We may accept alternative proof at our discretion if it is reasonable and supports your ownership of the item. If you cannot provide any acceptable evidence, we may not be able to pay your claim.
